

John O. Student

1234 Arbor
Some City, TX 71234

(979) 123-4567
student@neo.tamu.edu

Education

Texas A&M University, College Station TX
Bachelor of Science in Microbiology; Minor in Business Administration,
Graduation: May 20xx
Cumulative GPR: 3.64/ 4.0

Skills

Ability to speak, read, and write Spanish fluently
Proficiency in Microsoft Office
Familiar with Microscopy, Gel Electrophoresis, and Gas Chromatography

Related

Coursework

Biology (lab)	Inorganic Chemistry (lab)
Organic Chemistry (lab)	Microbiology (lab)
Biochemistry (lab)	Immunology (lab)

Experience

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX
Undergraduate Research Assistant, Fall 20xx-Spring 20xx

- Assisted in research of Circadian Clocks in Mammalian and Avian systems
- Engaged in pertinent techniques of animal handling
- Observed anatomy of Mammalian systems through surgical procedures

Department Of Horticulture, Texas A&M University
Lab Assistant, August 20xx – April 20xx

- Researched the biochemical properties of pecans as part of a health study for the Department of Agriculture
- Worked independently to develop fatty acid profiles for different types of pecans using gas chromatography as a mechanism for analysis

Department of Residence Life, Texas A&M University
Resident Advisor, August 20xx – August 20xx

- Managed a floor of approximately 60 students in a large residence hall
- At times supervised an entire hall of approximately 250 residents
- Programmed social and educational activities for hall
- Enforced all departmental policies and regulations

Activities

Circle K International (CKI), Fall 20xx - Present

- Participated as a member of a world wide service organization

Helping One Student To Succeed (HOSTS) Mentor, Fall 20xx - Present

- Served as tutor and mentor for at-risk Elementary school students

Microbiology Society, Fall 20xx - Present

ASPIRE Mentor, Fall 20xx – Fall 20xx

- Mentored incoming college freshmen in their adjustment to college life

Aggie School Volunteers/ Aggie Buddy Volunteer, Spring 20xx

Honors

Pi Eta Sigma Honor Society, Fall 20xx – Spring 20xx
Texas Livestock Show and Rodeo Scholarship